

LANDMARK #20 Fresno Junior College (1910) 1101 E. University, Fresno, CA

Fresno City College was established by Charles L. McLane, then superintendent of Fresno Schools. It was McLane's vision to bring higher education to the Central Valley. On May 8, 1910, the Board of Education adopted the report and authorized the opening of Fresno Junior College in September of that year.

FROM THE FRESNO COUNTY HISTORICAL LANDMARKS AND RECORDS ADVISORY COMMISSION ARCHIVES